H.B. No. 1130, (SD 1)
H.B. No. 1376, (SD 1)
H.B. No. 1447, HD 2, (SD 2)

The Chair addressed the Clerk who announced that the record of votes for the appropriate measures had been received which indicated that the requisite number of House Conferees appointed had agreed to the amendments made by the Senate, and had cast affirmative votes to report said measures to the Floor for final disposition.

H.B. No. 1130, SD 1:

Ayes, 3 (Keith-Agaran, B. Oshiro and Thielen). Noes, none. Excused, none.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1376, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with brief comments and slight reservations, and request for additional comments into the Journal.

"Mr. Speaker, this is a good bill and I commend the Majority Leader for ushering it through. It's the shield law. It's for protecting our First Amendment rights for the media. The unfortunate thing about this bill is that it expires in two years. I don't think the papers are going to go away. We're evolving. We're getting more information, it's out. I think it's more important that this become permanent and does not have a sunset. But that's the only reservation of what otherwise is a very good bill. Thank you."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations for House Bill 1376, Senate Draft 1, Relating to Evidence. This measure, also known as the "Shield Law," extends the limited news media privilege against the compelled disclosure of sources and unpublished information to June 30, 2013.

"The original version of House Bill 1376 is very similar to a measure I introduced, House Bill 194. These measures would have made the "Shield Law" permanent, ensuring protection for non-traditional journalists.

"My reservations lie in the compromise that this measure extends the "Shield Law" to June 30, 2013 and requires The Judiciary, through its Standing Committee on Rules of Evidence, to report to the 2012 Legislature, statistics and the Judiciary's recommendations on the future of the "Shield Law."

"One mandate requires the The Judiciary to collect information on other states that have enacted legislation that is similar to Act 210 (SLH 2008).

Mr. Speaker, at the Thursday, April 7, 2011 Senate Committee on Judiciary and Labor hearing, the Media Council of Hawaii's written testimony clearly states that "thirty-six states and the District of Columbia have enacted shield laws." Furthermore, they write that "Hawaii's law is widely regarded as one of the best in the nation."

"The Society of Professional Journalists – Hawaii Chapter, at the same hearing, opines that "there has been no documented harm to the state in the two years the shield law has been in effect and at least two cases where the law served its purpose in furthering a free press."

"Mr. Speaker, as digital media continues to evolve, and print media disappears, we must be proactive and protect non-traditional journalists such as bloggers, and media sources that publish their material on the Internet and via other forms of electronic media.

"I remain optimistic that The Judiciary's Standing Committee on Rules of Evidence will make the right decision in 2012, and recommend that the "Shield Law" remain permanent.

"Unfortunately, a codified reality repealing Act 210 (SLH 2008) on June 30, 2013 will exist if the Governor signs this bill into law. Therefore, I vote in support with reservations for House Bill 1376, Senate Draft 1."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1376, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EVIDENCE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Carroll, Souki and Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1447, HD 2, SD 2:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1447, HD 2, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Choy rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support of this bill. Last year we passed legislation that created a new product for the financial services professionals to offer. This year we tweaked the law by making this product more attractive. A lot of our time is spent on trying to diversify our economy and support businesses by focusing on tax preferences. Not enough of our efforts are put into areas of creating new financial products, which is a very environmentally clean business. In fact, the last time I can remember creating a new niche in financial services was the creation of captive insurance companies.

"This legislation should be the rebirth of using our intellectual capital to support and diversify our economy. I look forward to sharing our efforts with the professional accounting community this summer and watching this new product grow. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1447, HD 2, SD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PERMITTED TRANSFERS IN TRUST ACT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Rhoads voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Carroll, Souki and Takai being excused.

At 6:48 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 1130, SD 1
H.B. No. 1376, SD 1
H.B. No. 1447, HD 2, SD 2

H.C.R. No. 309, HD 1, (SD 1)

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.C.R. No. 309, HD 1, SD 1, be Adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you so much, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. I know we have a lot of important things that we're discussing now, so this reso is very little compared to what we are discussing. But it has some meaning I think. And hopefully it can, and I'm very grateful that it can give us some positive feelings as we enter what is a challenging, what continues to be a challenging week, and next week.

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure that was established by Marcie Davis, a paraplegic of over 35 years. This National Assistance Dog Week was created not just to recognize the devotion, the hard work, and the often times heroic deeds of assistance dogs, but also to those who provide the training and those who work with these animals that provide service to our community. We can educate those on the service that they give.

"Mr. Speaker, coming back from the Pali Highway, picking up my daughter, there was a car in front of me. Many of you may have seen this bumper sticker. Maybe many of you have seen this graffiti on your parks, on your buildings, in your communities. And it said, 'ainokea.' It's spelled A-I-N-O-K-E-A. It said, 'Ainokea. I do what I like.' This is what the bumper sticker said.

"So maybe there are those who care. These dogs, these trainers, they care. And people are aware of guide dogs who assist people, not just with vision loss. They assist them with walking, balancing, carrying items, opening doors, helping. Hearing alert dogs who assist those with hearing loss. Seizure response dogs who alert people and medical conditions such as heart attack, stroke, diabetes. Trained to provide notice to their owners about the medical conditions that they have. They serve in the police department. They serve in the military tactical arsenals, in scouting, in tracking, in service. And through these resolutions, perhaps we acknowledge these people who are associated with this uniquely caring, service-oriented animal.

"From Barry, the Superdog of Switzerland, he rescued over 40 people from heavy snow in the Swiss Alps. To this day, a statue is in Switzerland for him. To Bear, the Hero of Ground Zero who led the first search and rescue teams after the World Trade Center tragedies. But also to Hachiko, where there stands a statue in Japan of a dog who was known for his loyalty to his master. The most loyal friend, who awaited his owner's return, even as his owner had passed away.

"Perhaps we as leaders will remember that we stand for the power of this Capitol because much like perhaps, some of the roles that they play, it's our duty, our honor to serve and to remain forever loyal to the people of Hawaii. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.C.R. No. 309, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE GOVERNOR TO PROCLAIM THE SECOND WEEK OF AUGUST OF EVERY YEAR AS "HAWAII STATE ASSISTANCE DOGS WEEK"," was Adopted, with Representatives Cabanilla, Carroll, Souki and Takai being excused.

At this time, Representative Evans moved to keep the Journal open until 12:00 midnight this legislative day, seconded by Representative Pine and carried. (Representatives Cabanilla, Carroll, Souki and Takai were excused.)
